

Knight Cast Iron

350mm High

Specialist UK Manufacturer of Cast Iron Radiators

Our Knight cast iron radiator is suitable for low bay windows and conservatories as well as loft conversions and for all rooms with low roof elevations. Our Knight cast iron radiator lends itself for both contemporary and traditional settings and many of our clients have utilised this radiator with the idea of building a bench over it for extra seating in hallways, utility rooms and bay windows. For such a low standing radiator at 350mm high the heat efficiency of the Knight cast iron radiator is excellent.

A traditional Victorian cast iron radiator carefully recreated to be an exact copy of the original, a timeless classic.
